PERSHING OFFERS ARMY TO FOCH

THE ALLIED GAINS

Optimistic reports were received today from the world battle in France. The British regained territory from the Germans north of the Somme and captured prisoners and machine guns. The French, in the Montdidier sector, have taken Monchel, in addition to holding the places captured from the Germans yesterday. London and Paris report heavy Hun losses. General Pershing has placed the American army at the disposal of the French for use in the Picardy battle. He made the offer to General Foch in the name of the United States. The British withdrawal before the German drive was pre-arranged, according to Major-General J. Franklin Bell, who has just returned from France.

VICTIMS IN PARIS HOSPITAL

Bavarians Captured by Americans at Toul Indicate Full Hun Strength There

Paris, March 29.—Twenty-seven New England soldiers, gassed in a recent battle, have reached Paris. They are to be taken to a base hospital behind the front. All will recover.

By HENRY G. WALKER, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

With the American Army in France, March 29 (10 a. m.)—The capture of four Bavarian soldiers by Americans on the Toul front shows that the enemy has not shifted the forces opposite the American sector.

That part of the German line is still held by a Bavarian reserve division, although Von Hindenburg drew troops from many other sectors of the western front for his offensive, as well as from the Russo-Bulgarian and Italian fronts.

American interest in the German offensive becomes tender and tense as the battle situation nears its climax.

The consensus of hope among the Americans is fervent, that if the belligerents decide to make this the decisive battle of the war, they will get a chance to take part in it.

Everyone is continually talking about the situation. The gunners of a certain battery engaged in "sneaking" the enemy were discussing the battle while loading and firing their three-inch guns. As they threw out the shell cases, they snatched out the barrel and slammed home the breech they continued to wonder whether they would get a chance to get into the battle.

THE DOUGHBOYS ARE GREEDILY grabbing newspapers. They clip out the maps which the papers in the fighting zone publish following the course of the battle by the official communication.

'HE'S A ROOSEVELT ALL OVER,' CHUCKLES T. R. AS HE SEES ARCHIE'S BABY

Colonel Roosevelt and his newest grandson, Archibald Bulloch Roosevelt, Jr., and the baby's mother, formerly Grace Lockwood. Pictured taken today at the home of Thomas Lockwood on Bay State road, where young Mrs. Roosevelt is staying while Captain Archie is serving the Liberty Army in France.

Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was today introduced to Archibald Bulloch Roosevelt, Jr., his newest grandson, at the home of Thomas Lockwood, No. 111 Bay State road, where the baby's mother is staying with her parents, while the husband and father, Captain Archie, is in the trenches of France.

The colonel was very pleased to meet the youngster and showed it. He dandled the infant in his arms and favored him with a line of baby talk which would have certainly startled those who have heard him make speeches on important political affairs.

The colonel admitted that there was much to be hoped for in the way of future.

"But for his age, he is a fine fellow and a Roosevelt all over," said the playful grandfather.

Colonel Roosevelt arrived at the Lockwood home in an automobile with his daughter-in-law and was taken at once to see the baby. He spent the early afternoon with the Lockwoods and had luncheon there and later returned to the home of Dr. William Brewster at No. 24 Beacon street, where he will spend the night. He leaves early tomorrow for New York.

LENROOT AND DAVIES CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Milwaukee, March 29.—With the very fact that parties politics should be kicked out of the Wisconsin senatorial fight, both Irvine L. Lenroot, Republican, and Joseph E. Davies, Democrat, entered the homecoming today of the race which ends Tuesday.

The great drive from both camps is for all inclusive to combine against Vorhees & Berger, the Socialist nominee. Republican headquarters are clamoring for Lenroot by a majority of 50,000. The Davies campaign managers give out a forecast that President Wilson's candidate will win by 25,000.

London, March 29.—By a series of powerful counter thrusts, delivered by the British north of the Somme River, ground was gained from the Germans and a number of German prisoners and machine guns were captured, the War Office reported today.

There is a continuation of the terrific fighting over the greater part of the battle front. Strong German reserves were thrown into the battle, but were everywhere thrown back by the determined resistance of the British. The dense German columns were caught under the rifle, machine gun and cannon fire of the British, and Field Marshal Haig reported that they again sustained tremendous losses.

ALLIED RETREAT FRENCH RETAKE PREARRANGED, SAYS BELL

General Tells Senate Committee British Are Acting in Accordance With Plans

By International News Service.

Washington, March 29.—Major-General J. Franklin Bell, commander of the 7th division of the National Army, just back from France, told the Senate Military Affairs Committee today that the British withdrawal in the face of the German drive was prearranged.

"You may have heard that the withdrawal of the British was prearranged," said General Bell. "That is true. I know in a general way something about their plans, which I learned continuously while I was abroad."

The general stated there was no objection to the publication of his statements because the plans had already been carried out.

"You may have seen that General Bell," he said, "has been here two months to prepare for the drive," said General Bell. "It took longer. There seems to be an impression that the British made the best preparation possible."

General Bell presented his observations in much detail. He told the committee that General Pershing had evaluated schools to train American officers in the scientific method of warfare taught by the British and French. The utilization of scientific methods worked out in the last three years necessitated the formation of a new school in Germany.

Sharp Fighting in Montdidier Sector Continues With Heavy Hun Losses

By International News Service.

Paris, March 29.—The French army fighting shoulder to shoulder with the British in the Picardy front, has taken the village of Monchel in the Montdidier sector.

In the fighting in this district the enemy's losses were exceedingly heavy. The allies have steadily held the Aves line north of Montdidier.

The Aves line lies between Neuville, Beaumont, Montiers, Marcellinville and Hamel (Haut).

The fighting indicates that the French line extends nearly to the Somme now.

South of the Somme River violent fighting raged until late Thursday evening. After holding their battle line all day against the violent assaults of the Germans the British made a strategic withdrawal at some points from their advanced positions, the official report added.

The War Office indicated that the British counter blows were growing in vigor, and that the pressure of the German drive has greatly weakened.

"Further strong attacks were delivered by the enemy at several points north of the Somme River in the

The city is in a position to see that the food for Finland, for which the fund was raised by popular subscription among the Finnish societies of the country is not distributed to Germany.

Harry T. Manser took the witness stand in his own behalf today in the trial for the murder of Thomas P. Reiser, Joseph C. Reiser and another. He admitted having been found guilty of the crime charged against him.

"That was when Pauline Joseph Reiser" he was asked by the lawyer, John W. Connelley.

Manser said that he was on Jersey street with a man named Arthur Morten, whom he had known for five months.

He said that they agreed to enter Nos. 117 and 121 to break into that, that he went into No. 117 and that the last he saw of Morten the latter was standing in front of No. 117.

Manser said he went into the Campbell flat at No. 111, came out into the street on the second floor, saw a brown bag, brown-brace and silver watch, came out of the door, went into the search of him, walked up to the second floor, saw a box in the hallway, heard shots and walked slowly down stairs and out.

He declared that he saw no one else and that he was not present at the scene.

MICK'S ARREST LEADS TO TRIAL OF WIRELESS

Discussion in the Back Bay today of the case of Dr. Carl Mack, the Symphony orchestra director, now held in jail at Cambridge, has led to the trial of a wireless outfit which is said to have been operated in or from a Back Bay dwelling.

Federal authorities decline to discuss this report in any way.

But at several society functions the reported wireless outfit has been and will be the subject of interested conversation.

According to the story told across the street, the person using the wireless is a married couple, who have been arrested on charges of operating the same.

This person is also connected with extreme cunning in covering up the wireless outfit, even going to the extent of having a man shoot wood on the premises, while the wireless was being operated, in order that the noise of the woodchopping might drown, or at least distract from, the sound of the wireless.

The Back Bay discussion also turned upon probable locating of the operating end of the wireless outfit. One report was that it was located in the basement of a house. Another report attributed it to a fire place.

It was assumed in this discussion that a person resourceful and daring enough to operate such a wireless outfit would be equally resourceful in concealing the same.

BAY STATE MAY BOOST FARE TO 9 CENTS FOR REVERE

RESIDENTS ARE ALREADY AT WORK TO GET RID OF 6-CENT RATE

Fares to Revere Beach over the Bay State this summer will be more than 6 cents—at least 7½ cents and possibly 9 cents—according to the schedules filed by the company with the Public Service Commission.

Presumably the 8-cent check system will be done away with, but the commission declined to permit the withdrawal, for the present. A suspension was made on this phase of the Bay State's request until May 1.

Abandoning the 8-cent checks will mean a fare of 11½ cents from most parts of Boston to the beach, and presumably will divert traffic largely in the narrow gauge, which can be reached via the Atlantic Avenue Elevated or the East Boston Tunnel and Orient Heights.

The questions arising from the Bay State's effort to get more money will be threshed out at a hearing to the commission's rooms next Thursday at 10:30 a. m.

MAY NOT BE THE REMEDY.
"The question is, apparently," said Commissioner Everett Stone, "whether the Bay State will be better off by increasing fares or not. The company isn't making any money now and cannot continue indefinitely to do business at a loss. The increase in fares presumably will cause a decrease in riding. Whether the company will be any better off is something that it wants to determine by trying."

According to the new schedule, a six-cent fare is the lowest rate, that which touches Boston on the north, will carry a passenger from the South Bay square terminal to any one of the following places: End of line, Everett, Square, Malden square, via Ferry street, end of line at Washington corner, Revere via City Coughlin, they are prepared to charge a strong fight against the proposed increase.

The opening shot will be fired Monday evening when President Walcott will present a resolution to the members of the Council at their meeting. City Hall, protesting against further increase of fare to Revere.

Malden's Mayor Says Higher Fares Means Loss of Patronage
By CHARLES M. BLOODETT, Mayor of Malden.

"Increase in fares by the Bay State can only result in loss of the road—loss of patronage. With the increase to six cents, Malden people would have to pay 11½ cents to get to the beach. The same man who can ride to the beach for 6 cents will pay 11½ cents to ride over property representing an investment of hundreds of thousands of dollars, all the way from Boston to Revere Beach, and think he is getting a bargain," he said. "The same man will cheerfully pay a quarter as rent for a 12 building suit for a half hour."

Nevertheless, the Revere citizens do not take that view of the situation. They are prepared to and bring with it the additional revenue needed."

Dedham Men Ask Bay State to Give Better Service on Oakdale Line

A delegation of business men of Dedham are displeased because, they say, Wallace H. Doush, manager of the Bay State Street Railway Company, after making an appointment to discuss street car service to Dedham and Oakdale, failed to put in an appearance and was represented by two officials of the road. The committee was made up of representatives John A. Hirsch, chairman of the Board of Selectmen, George D. Gibb, Hugh J. Cannon, president of East Dedham Union Men's Association, and Improvement of Dedham School Board, Frederick H. Holmes and J. Henry Ray of the Board of Overseers of the Poor. At the close of the conference the committee representing the road of the road said that it would take under advisement the question of running a through car from Oakdale to Forest Hills, at least one every half hour or three minutes time, paying eleven cents for the through ride rather than continue in the old way of operating the Oakdale line.

Says Zone System of Fares is a Hardship and Will Hurt Road
By CHARLES H. ADAMS, Mayor of Melrose.

"Establishment of a zone system which will limit travel between city and town lines, rather than between the usual destinations of ordinary travel, is certain to work hardship on the public and to meet with popular opposition. Passengers do not want a car at one end of a city and leave it at the other end of the city limits. They generally board a car to ride from some part of the first city to some part, usually the business center, of a nearby city. 'I feel confident that an increase to an equivalent fare in Melrose would result in practically a boycott of the trolley.'"

Mayor Creamer of Lynn Makes Official Protest Against Mileage Plan

Mayor Walter H. Creamer of Lynn has sent a letter to the Public Service Commission protesting the new schedule of increased fares on the Bay State Street Railway Company, which goes into effect April 1 under the mileage system, and under which residents of Lynn would pay 11½ cents for a three-mile ride, while commuters riding a greater distance would pay seven and a half cents for a ride to a boundary line which will be established by the company engineers.

Believes Lower Fares and Better Service is What the Road Needs

By JOHN H. KEATING, President of Melrose Board of Trade.
When the Bay State increased its fares to 6 cents the Boston & Maine was obliged to add several cars to each of its trains during the morning and evening hours. If the fares are still further increased it will simply mean that additional cars on the Boston & Maine will have to be put in operation; probably several additional trains.
"It isn't an increased fare that we should give them. It is a decreased fare with more cars operated on a regular schedule which will be dependable. Then travel will increase."

MRS. ASTOR HAD NO SUGAR FOR BOSTON MAN

George E. Glidden Tells of Frugal Meals While London
Guest of Society Leader

Mrs. Waldorf Astor was able to serve a little better, but on a night when George E. Glidden of Boston, one of the four men of the Liberty Loan Committee of New England who have been studying war conditions for the past two months, was guest at her home in London, according to words just received by the committee from Mr. Glidden, his wife in part.

"I know what it is to go without sugar, to eat without meat, to be able to get a meat meal only by means of a meat cake, to have a piece of butter to put on a baked oat for one day, to pay for a real good meal and receive less than a sample—and to get the tea table."

"If it was not for the afternoon tea, with a bit of toast and jam, I should be starved to death. I have not seen a drop of sugar since I came to New York. The only bit I have since I came to New York is a little butter, but no sugar. I have absolutely forgotten what white bread looks like, to say nothing of hot or cold cream. Thank God there are plenty of good fish in the sea, and that makes good some meals, here. Some of the bad ones do also."

"Today I tried raincoats. If such rain things were served at home they would be sent from the table and thrown away. I did not think there, and with a relish, and to give up a meat course in order to get them."

PEABODY MAYOR MAY PROSECUTE CITY CLERK

Mayor E. Howard Donnell of Peabody today notified Michael J. Sullivan, counsel for City Clerk John C. Cote, Jr., of Peabody, who was charged by the mayor with making false entries in city books, that he intended to ask the State Grand Jury to investigate Cote's case.

Hearings on the mayor's charges and his demand for Cote's removal closed last night before the mayor and City Council. The mayor wrote to Attorney Sullivan today in part as follows:

"In the closing minutes of your argument in connection with my charge you practically charged me with dishonesty in connection with certain allegations, inasmuch as all the evidence showed that whatever was done was under no direction, and I am surprised that you would resort to such a cheap trick after I had graciously yielded to your right to perfect right to introduce that book of account in its evidence, together with all its contents, if you desired it or if you had the slightest evidence that would embarrass me in any way, shape or manner."

"If you are as fair in this case as you wish the public to believe, you will either retract this statement or present the book of the City Council of its next meeting. I intend to request the Essex County Grand Jury to investigate the Cote case at the next session and I ask you to produce at that time any and all evidence that you have of any act of dishonesty of any employee or official of the city of Peabody, including myself."

GIVE ALL MAIL FACTS;
DEMAND OF TREADWAY

By International News Service.
Washington, March 28.—Charges that soldiers in France are being deprived of comfort or comfort for the work or the committee on public information, was made in the House today by Representative Treadway of Massachusetts. Representative Treadway introduced a resolution calling on the War Department to explain the recent order curtailing the sending of packages to members of the expeditionary force by parcels post. The resolution calls upon the postmaster general to furnish information of all amounts of parcels post sent to the expeditionary force during the past month and the amount of literature sent to the soldiers by the committee on public information. Representative Treadway said he understood that the mails had been clogged by booklets and literature sent to the forces abroad by the committee on public information.

"I believe that the men at the front know more from contact than do men sitting here in Washington and the boys at the front do not need any propaganda disseminated by a bureau maintained to exploit the work of the administration and those close to it," Treadway said.

GIVEN FOUR MONTHS FOR AUTO SPEEDING

Tony Campanaro, a garage worker living in West Newton, was sentenced to four months in the House of Correction in Waltham Court today on a charge of driving an automobile recklessly. He was arrested February 21 after his machine had struck Miss Margaret Lamplugh, a Watertown young woman, as she was crossing Mount Auburn street, Watertown, causing her serious injury. The police allege that the car was taken from the garage of his employer in Newton without his consent.

LAST YEAR WAS BOSTON'S BIGGEST IN FISHERIES

The year 1917 was the most prosperous in the history of the Boston fish business, according to a report of the Boston Fish Bureau. Nearly 100,000,000 pounds of fresh fish were landed at the South Boston pier. The fishermen Mary P. Carlin and Annable both landed 134,000. Twenty-one other vessels earned from $23,000 to $35,000.

RECIPE TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair. Mr. Frank Harshbarger of Cincinnati, O., who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

been contributed. Last week about seven thousand were brought in, a small number because the drive was not on until the middle of the week," says Charles Belden, the Librarian of the Boston Public Library, and the State director of the drive.

"The need for books is enormous, not only in the camps in this country, but abroad. It has been recognized by authorities. For example, the British Government has ordered agents for at least 100,000 books a month for the soldiers abroad. When you realize that there are 35,000 more needed in our camps, you will see that our 35,000 are needed in all need is continual."

"And the need for books is continual. The life of a book in the camps is only about three or four weeks. Then they have to be replaced. There are thirty-four camps in this country that maintain libraries. And in these libraries the use of non-fiction is about sixty per cent. A great many of the men are reading books on the war, and they are reading up on the profession of arms. They are reading up on the profession of arms. They are reading up on the profession of arms."

Come to the Live Store

Good Clothes

and the weeks to follow

Everybody wants new clothes for Easter. See to it that yours are GOOD clothes as well as new. Buy not merely for Easter alone, but for the weeks and months to come. Buy the best you can afford. That's true economy. Cheap clothes are the rankest kind of extravagance—always. Bear that in mind in these days of advancing prices. Quality is still to be had, and while it costs a little more than it used to, it's still worth a lot more than it costs.

You might think that a store of such vast size as ours would carry all kinds of clothing. But we don't. We deal only in Good Clothes. Whatever price you pay here, it brings you well made, well styled, dependable merchandise that we can recommend wholeheartedly. Also you get more actual value for your money here than anywhere else because you get the benefit of every price advantage, every quality advantage and every economy derived from our modern methods of merchandising.

Kuppenheimer Suits

In times like these, the name of a good maker is doubly desirable. You can rely as confidently as ever on any garment bearing the Kuppenheimer label. But there may not be enough Kuppenheimer Suits to go around this season. So if you want one, you'd better get yours early to make sure of it.

Why Goids Lead to Pneumonia.
When a cold is neglected it attacks the lining of the lungs—then it's pneumonia. Father John's Medical Clinic treats colds and prevents pneumonia because it nourishes the system and drives out the poisonous waste matter. Another way of treating a cold is likely to lead to pneumonia. Not a "cough syrup" or "balm" depending upon dangerous and weakening drugs but a food medicine and body builder.
